

Save the Date!

First Annual American Indian English Learner Research Alliance Conference

July 27-28, 2016, Albuquerque, New Mexico

On behalf of the South Central Comprehensive Center and WIDA at the Wisconsin Center for Education Research, it is our privilege to announce the First Annual American Indian English Learner Research Alliance Conference. We would be honored by your presence as we come together to celebrate Native languages, cultural preservation, and culturally responsive instruction and assessment with tribes, districts, and schools. Our presenters and speakers will share resources, information, and tools as well as provide opportunities for networking and collaboration. See you this summer!

Native English Learner Research
Relevant Keynote Speakers
Culturally Responsive Pedagogy

For more information:

Rosalie Grant, Researcher

WIDA at the Wisconsin Center for Education Research

1025 W. Johnson St., Madison, WI 53706

Phone (608) 890-3140 • Email: Rosalie.grant@wisc.edu

Wisconsin Center for Education Research
UNIVERSITY OF WISCONSIN-MADISON

Comprehensive Center
at the University of Oklahoma

WIDA™